Dear TestEdge,

Congratulations! On behalf of Collins Aerospace, a business segment of Raytheon Technologies, we are delighted to announce that TestEdge Inc, has been selected as a Raytheon Technologies Premier Award recipient based upon your performance in 2022.

Each year, as part of the Raytheon Technologies Performance+ Program, suppliers are selected for their outstanding performance, contribution, and exceptional value provided to Raytheon Technologies in one of the four key categories: Cost Competitiveness, Technology & Innovation, Business Management, and Collaboration & Customer Service. Testedge Inc has been selected to receive the Premier Award for overall excellence in Business Management.

Raytheon Technologies leadership would like to thank you and your team for the hard work and dedication required to be recognized as a Premier Award recipient. Your commitment to performance excellence is greatly appreciated. It enables results for customers worldwide and solidifies a platform for our continued mutual success.

For public communication regarding your achievement of the Raytheon Technologies Premier Award, please reference and adhere to Appendix A: Guidance and Protocol for Public Release document.

Again, congratulations on your achievement!
